

SOJC Public Relations Sequence | J352 Faculty Advising | Scheduling Your Meeting Online or Via Email

A requirement of J352 (Strategic Writing and Media Relations) is that you complete an individual session with your designated faculty adviser. You can find your faculty adviser via a degree audit on DuckWeb. See additional details in the syllabi for the course.

Most faculty advisers have online meeting schedulers, which makes it easier to connect. Link to your faculty adviser's scheduling platform indicated below, choose a day and time, and book a meeting. Below you will find the online scheduling link for instructors and professors who are PR Sequence faculty advisers. Use email to connect and schedule for faculty without online scheduling.
